Libraries Unlimited Trader Policy and Guidance

This is a not-for-profit event and proceeds from stall booking fees go directly back into the running of Libraries Unlimited. As such, we do not offer discounted stalls.

Libraries Unlimited welcomes all sorts of stall holders!

We are keen to receive applications from those selling high quality, sustainably sourced, or locally made products. We would love to hear from fledgling businesses, artisans and craftspeople, gourmet foodies and anyone passionate about the 'shop local, support small' movement.

From start-ups and passion projects. Bakers, jewellers, potters, printers and those who just need to make room for more in their wardrobe, you all have a place at one of our three key locations: Exeter, Barnstaple or Paignton

TRADER TYPES

At Libraries Unlimited, we divide everyone into 3 categories so make sure you know which one you are in before you book your ticket. Those with the wrong ticket type may be refused entry.

1. ARTISTS – have you got work you want to showcase? Would you like to hire the retail cart to showcase your latest collection?
2. TRADERS– selling something you've made? Buying goods specifically for resale? If you trade regularly, including selling online, you are classed as a trader.

3. FOODIE- selling consumables? Baker?
Chocolatier? Jams and Chutneys? Veg? If you are selling food items, then you are classed a foodie.

Traders and foodies will need to provide proof of their Public Liability Insurance. Foodies will need to provide proof of their food hygiene certification if they are selling food that has been prepared in any way.
